FOREWARD

The purpose of this book is to furnish the community with a better insight into the student life of Morral High School.

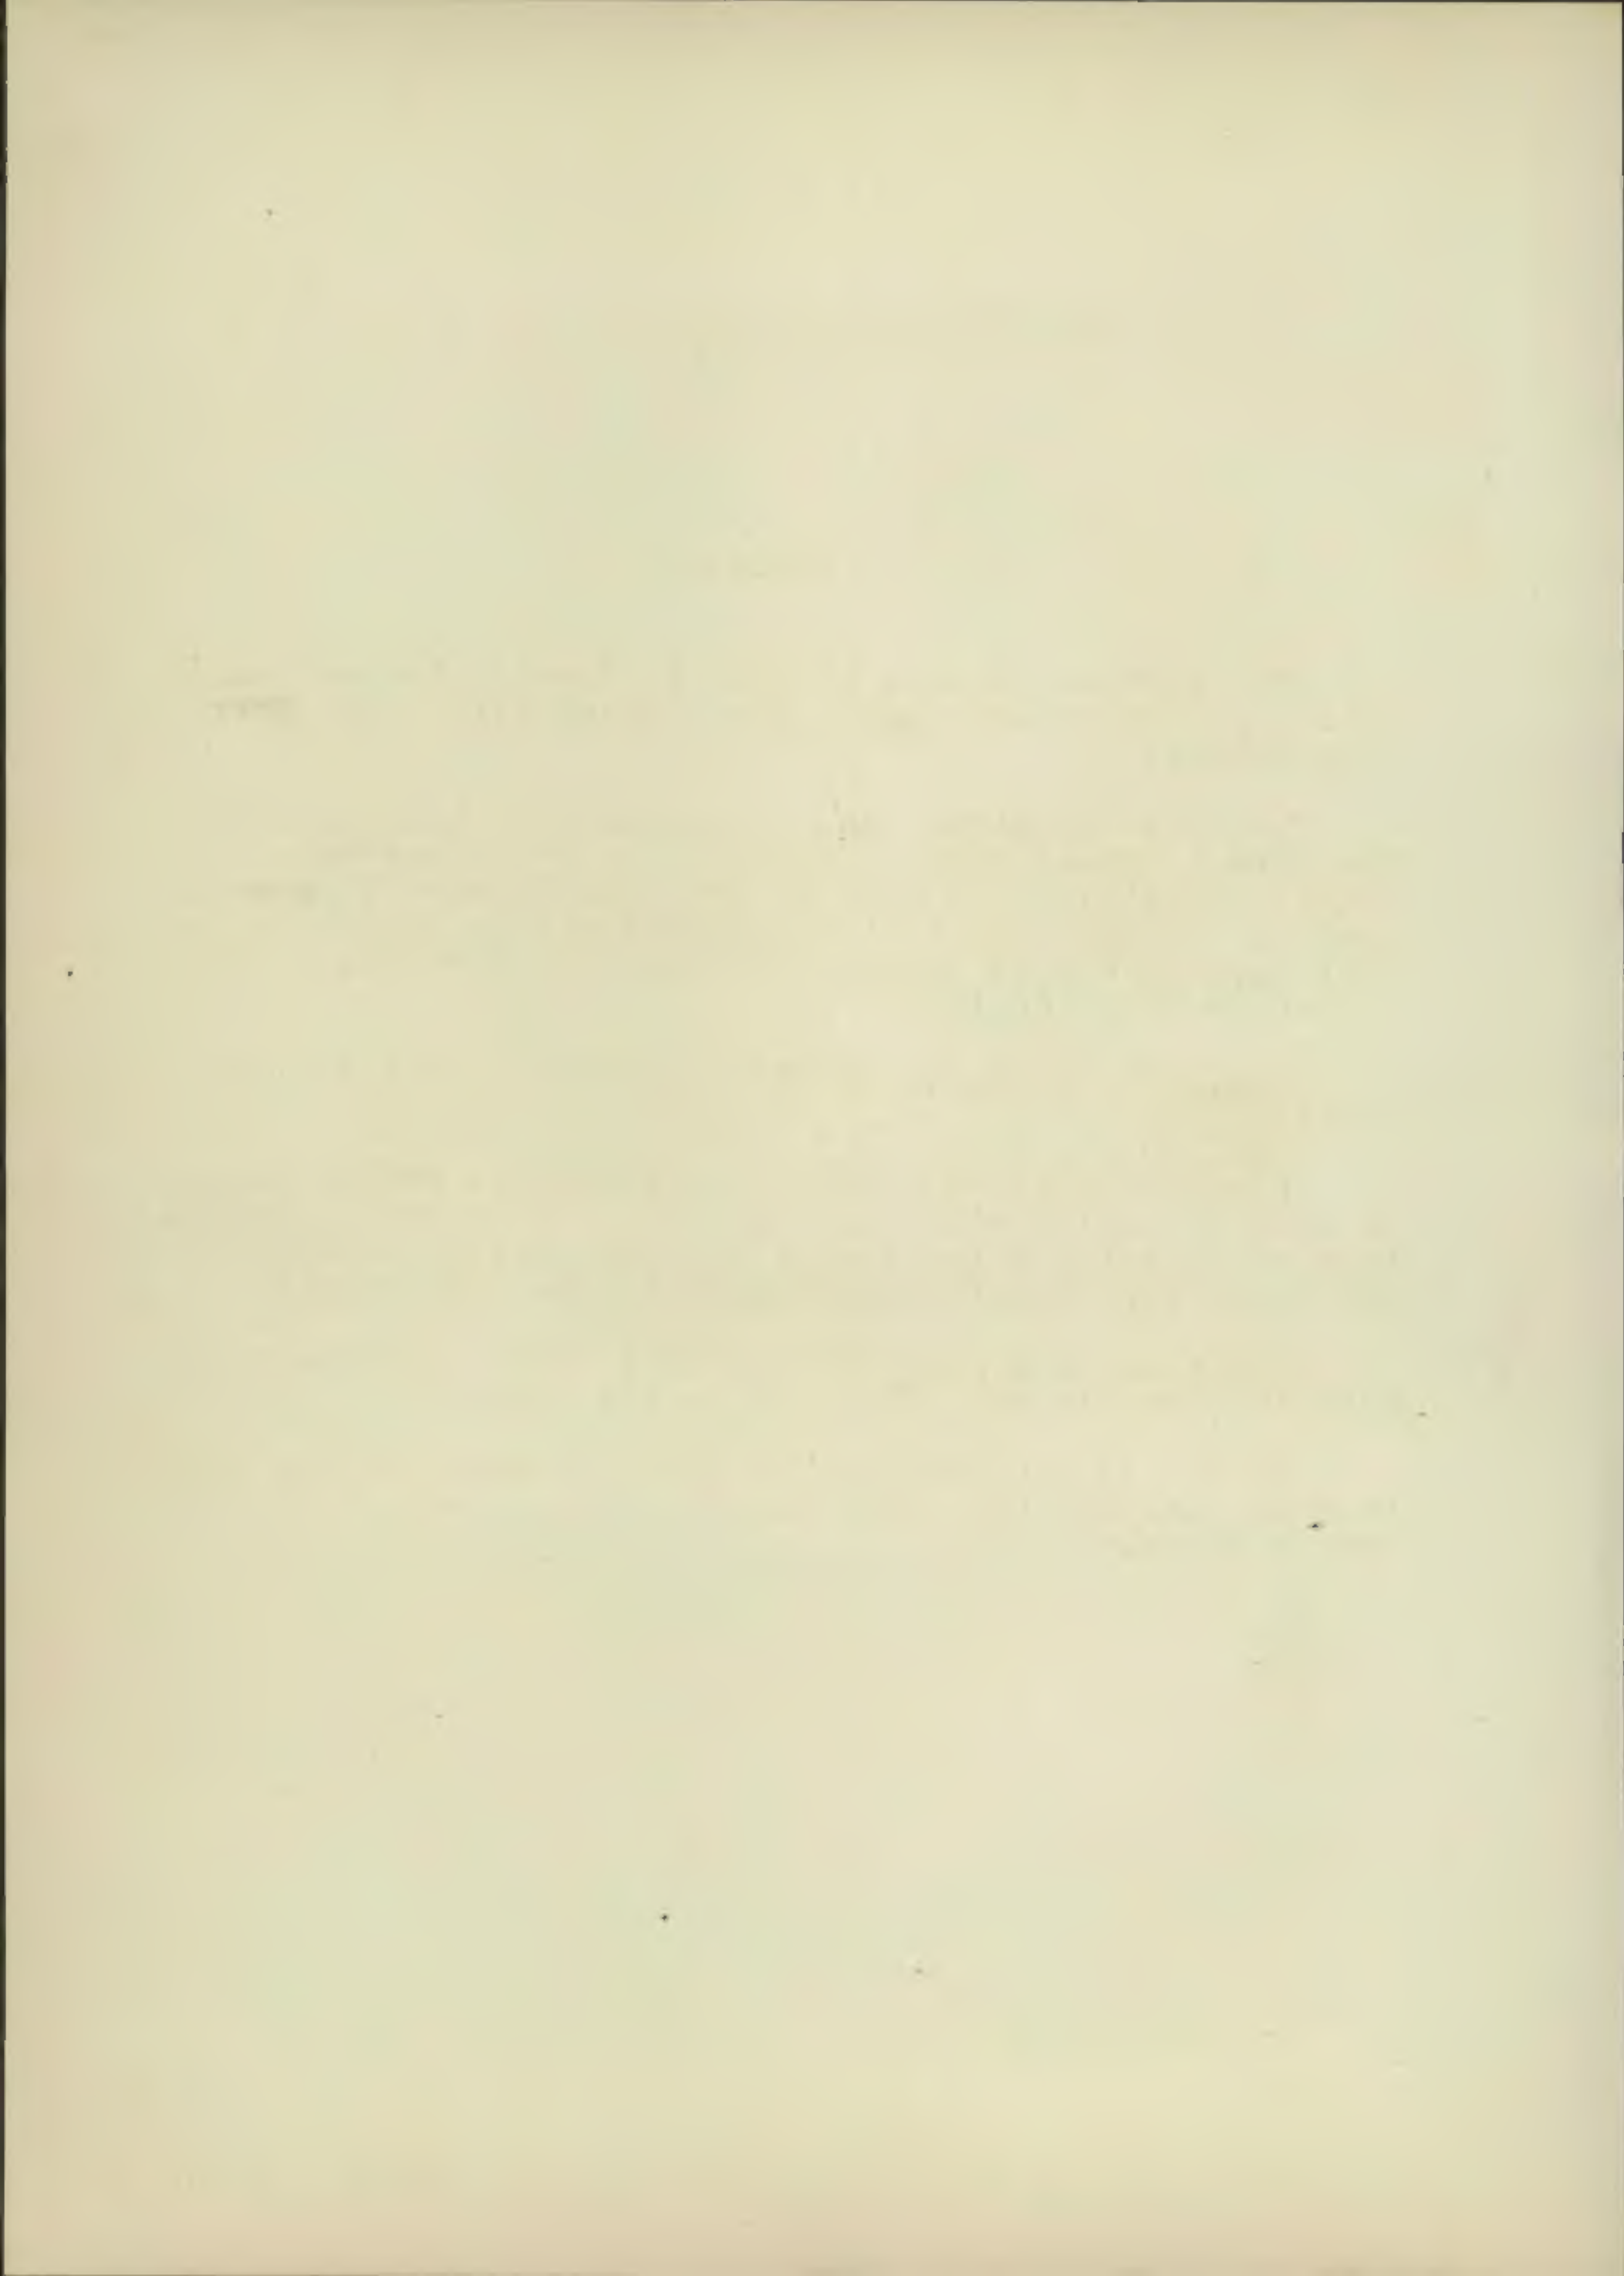

This is the first annual published in the history of The Morral School system and we have taken the responsibility of originating what we hope will become a regular custom. We know that time improves all things and we feel sure that each successive issue of this annual will be better than the last.

Now, a word of explanation as to the choice of a name:

Local historians who remember details of the origin of this community will tell you that the founder of the town of Morral was the son of Captain William Morral, who was an officer under General Hull in the War of 1812.

The town was laid out in 1874 on land owned by Captain Morral's son and named in his honor.

So it is with respect to these leaders of the past that we publish this high school annual and entitle it "The Captain."

DEDICATION

We dedicate this first issue of the "Captain" to the millions of men and women who have so freely sacrificed their time and their lives for the peace and security of the world.

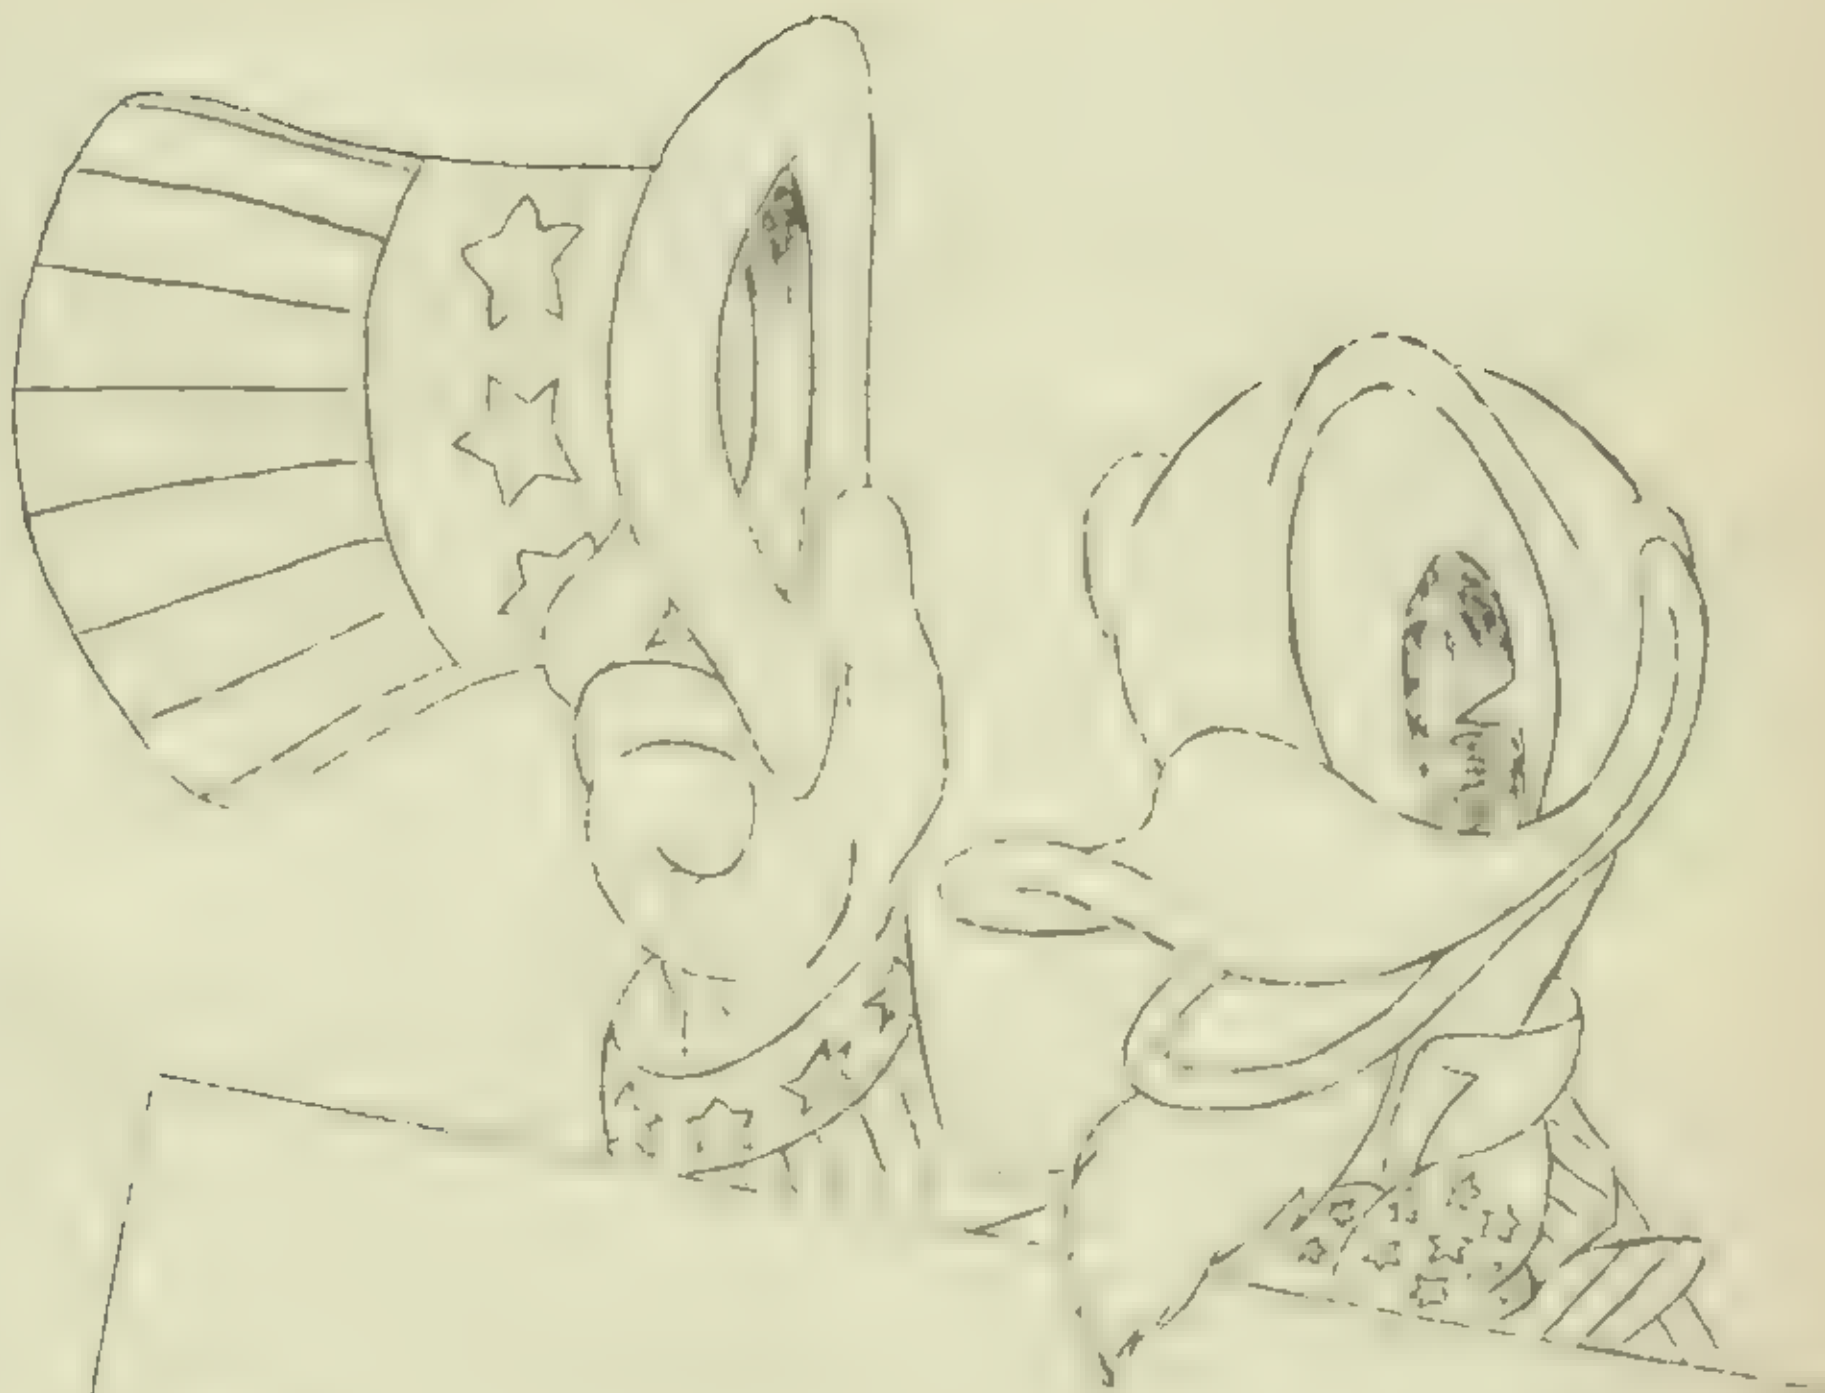

We wish, in this dedication, to pay special honor to those servicemen and women who have attended Morrill High School. Their names appear on the following page:

As we joyously welcome those servicemen and women who are returning to us, we pause in silent tribute before those who will never return.

ONLY SIX

Only six seniors, but who can say,
What those six seniors may do some day.
Six chances to serve their country and world,
To help keep their country's great flag unfurled.

Only six seniors, but who can say,
What those six seniors may be some day.
Each one a star in his corner of life,
Statesman, scholar, farmer, or wife.
Doing their best where falls their lot,
Living full lives without blemish or blot.

Only six seniors, but who can say,
Where those six seniors may go some day.
The Far North, the East, or the Isles of the Sea,
The field of their future labor may be.

Only six lives, but who can fore-see,
How very rich those lives may be
If service to others is their motto in life.
So here's to each senior, do your best to go far,
Keep your feet on the ground and your eyes on your star.

CLASS HISTORY

One bright sunny day in September in the year of our Lord 1942, 16 trebling Freshmen hopefully entered the institution of higher learning known in what is commonly known as Morrill High School. Before we were allowed to settle down to a high school life we were forced to go through a grueling initiation ceremony. Besides the rigid requirements which we complied with during the day-time we were compelled to recite Mother Goose rymes in our best 3 year old voice and to sing weird and wonderful songs at the evening party. That day was indeed a memorable one, in fact that memory had to last a long time as initiations were discontinued until this year. (you may draw your own conclusions from that statement.) At long last we could plunk our books into a long coveted study hall desk.

The ringing of school bells sent a class of 15 Sophomores running to assemble school books with a high resolve to make another student vision. The annual harvest of Grand Prixites netted this class only 2 students. We were very grateful for their appearance, however, because they bolstered our fast training ranks, and helped us through another year in grand style.

Our Junior year was started with a bang. The Junior and Senior classes were co-sponsors of a Lawn Festival. We had planned to hold this on the lawn, naturally, but Mother Nature failed to abide withdraw to the gym. This enterprising idea added a little to our ever hungry treasury.

As the autumn breezes of 1944 sent the red leaves starting to rust, 12 Juniors stepped into the familiar halls of Morrill High School to shoulder their weary load of school. The first important event of this year was the annual Junior Play. After one look at her 12 protuberant children our director threw up her hands in dismay and fled from the scene in terror. Miss Wicker came to our rescue and bravely agreed to produce a creditable play. We hear that Janie Bishop's role made such a lasting impression that she is still keeping in practice by fainting frequently.

Basketball fans will recall the persistent effort of the Junior girls in trying to sell COMES! HOT DOGS! etc. to all comers. There was a great deal of fun connected with it and no one felt cheated at missing the games.

The crowning event of the year, so far as we were concerned, was the Junior-Senior Banquet. We at last decided to hold it at Patrick's Inn in Litch. (um, wonderful food!) The returning Seniors were horrified as each was called upon to recite his own class history. This unusual procedure turned out quite well despite the fears of

R. V. West who had left the all important document at the school. (Thinking that should be the fate of this class history.) A friend who had been with a movie at the Palace Theater.

Upon returning to the grind in the fall we were greeted with a new will rising class. There were three new faces at the front of the class. Many times we counted heads and only five were to be found. Not all accounted for. Five people had deserted our first singing class, but it was not until we had righted our heads of students and were not again in our course. A new class was dropped into the fall in January, which brought the total up to six.

In April the community caught sight of these six students in class. This is another class or resurrected from the past. It has been a long time since the last senior play and this one could not have been produced without the help of the other classes.

At last comes the time when we, like the Arabs, fold our tents and silently steal away. Where have these last 4 years gone? That was in the minds of most of us as we prepared in to the final class of the night of commencement.

This brings to a close the history of 4 years in the lives of 6 still hopeful people.

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of nineteen hundred and forty-six, being in sound mind and body, do hereby set our seal upon this, our last will and testament, on the thirteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-six.

We do hereby solemnly bequeath the following to the members of the Junior Class of nineteen hundred and forty-six, in the order hereafter mentioned.

Jane Bishop leaves her artistic ability to Norma Christensen, her charming ways to Mary Radol, preciseness to Vernon Neal, her limples to Ann Smelzer, and her green ink to Howard Conley.

Marilyn Metzger bequeaths her scholastic ability to Pete Merritt, office work to Martha Buckley, dry humor to Jim Conley, attentive manner to Lowell Hensel, and her coffee drinking to Fred Baer.

Leona Leathem grants her quiet way to Jack Lill, her ready smile to Paul Wiley, calmness to Dick Granlee, willingness to Lowell Hensel, and her bells to Alice Rough.

Dale Hensel honors his pretty curls to Edward Schertzer, studiousness to Gene White, basketball skill to Don Saxton, and his walk to Richard Granlee.

Ray Cook bestows his tennis shoes to Virgil Hite, attentiveness in class to Paul Wiley, chewing gum to Ann Smelzer, cleanness to Jack Lill, innocence (?) to Edward Schertzer.

Elith Williams gives her ready smile to Claribel Newland, her ear rings to Gene White, her secretarial ability to Edward Faurot, and her love of argument to Alice Rough.

Done this thirteenth day of April in the presence of:

CLASS PROPHECY

Welcome to the inner room of the studio of Madame Zaza, Palmistry Expert. Lo and behold, but what have we here? It is Commencement Eve and these six have come seeking to have the Madame lift the veil of the future and reveal the fate of each.

Edith Williams is summoned into the presence of the all seeing Madame Zaza. After crossing the Madame's palm with silver, Edith's hand is seized. Making a thorough survey of the palm the Madame speaks: I see--I see this young lady perched on a high hill in the midst of a tobacco patch with the dark and muddy waters of the overflowing Ohio River swirling at her feet. You have returned to your "Old Kentucky Home" for relaxation from strenuous stenographic duties in the office of the pepper magnate, Peter Piper. Oh yes!! "Peter Piper's pickled peppers" are to be found on every well set table.

As Edith passes from the innermost chamber, Leone Leathem fearfully crosses the threshold into the future. The Madame smiles as she begins this reading. I behold a modest sign over a doorway "Look Lovely With Leone." I open the door and peer through the steam to discover myriads of stewing women being carefully guided along the rough road to beauty. Overseeing this vast operation is Lady Leone herself. An exciting array of cosmetics has recently made its debut to the American woman. Ladies from far and wide are flocking into exclusive stores to purchase Lady Leone Powders and Perfumes. Leone, happily, emerges from her audience with Madame Zaza and guides a doubtful Dale Hensel into the very great unknown. The Madame frowns slightly as she scans this gentleman's palm. She seems bewildered and asks a question. "Young man, what is your ambition? Dale, after some deliberation replies, "I dunno." The Madame closes her eyes and concentrates. At last she speaks: Two roads lie before you. At the end of one, paved with indolence and indecision, I see you, a weary and discouraged old man leaning on a fence rail. What has happened? No, don't tell me!! I see it all now, you are asked if you would like to receive the inheritance from your millionaire uncle's estate. Your answer: "I dunno" sent $5,000,000 into the treasury of the home for "Ailing Airedales." The opposite road leads to the position of leading farmer of your district. Students from all over the country have made their way to this model farm. "It is up to you, sir," thus sayeth the Madame.

Scratching his head, Dale tatters away from Madame Taza and points the way to Jane Bishop. The Madame has great difficulty in distinguishing the lines of this palm, because of the blotches of green ink on Jane's hand. Madame Taza at last thralls her way through this maze and begins her reading. "After many years spent starving in an obscure attic, you have overcome the most oppressively obstacles and established an art studio. This studio has become famous for the quantity of 'Flaky' portraits which you have painted. Oh! so you would like to know what your hobby is? You make a substantial profit from the sale of 'Jane's Jeanty Jingles', short poems which you are constantly scribbling on every available scrap of paper.

An impatient Fay Cook is at last ushered before the august Madame Taza. She sincerely scrutinizes this young man's palm with a puzzled expression. There are many conflicting indications here,--but it is clear to me now. You will have to choose your career. The first being that of president of a great business and company. Perhaps the greatest inspiration of your life comes when you hit upon a slogan for your famous product: "Chew Cook's--Favorite of Crooks". At last you are free to retire from this lucrative enterprise. All of the profits are now piled up, thus there is no longer a reason for the product. Not to be discouraged you speedily convert the whole in your factory and begin production of tennis shoes from the remains of the chewing gum mixture.

The last of the six in the waiting room is Marilyn Metzger. She has heard of the futures of her classmates and is nervously awaiting a revelation of her own prospective failure or success. The Madame carefully takes up this last hand and tells of Marilyn twenty years from now. She is peering near-sightedly at a volume of ancient history. There is a steaming cup of coffee at her side, and she is preparing a list of questions to be answered by her group of young hopefuls on the morrow.

Madame Taza closes her studio for the night, well pleased with what she has promised in the lives of these six young people.

SENIOR ALPHABET

D is for Dale
Our basketball hero
But in his tests
He often gets zero.

M is for Marilyn
The brain of our school
She is always dignified
Calm and quite cool.

R is for Ray
With lots to say
When he loses his voice
He has a sad day.

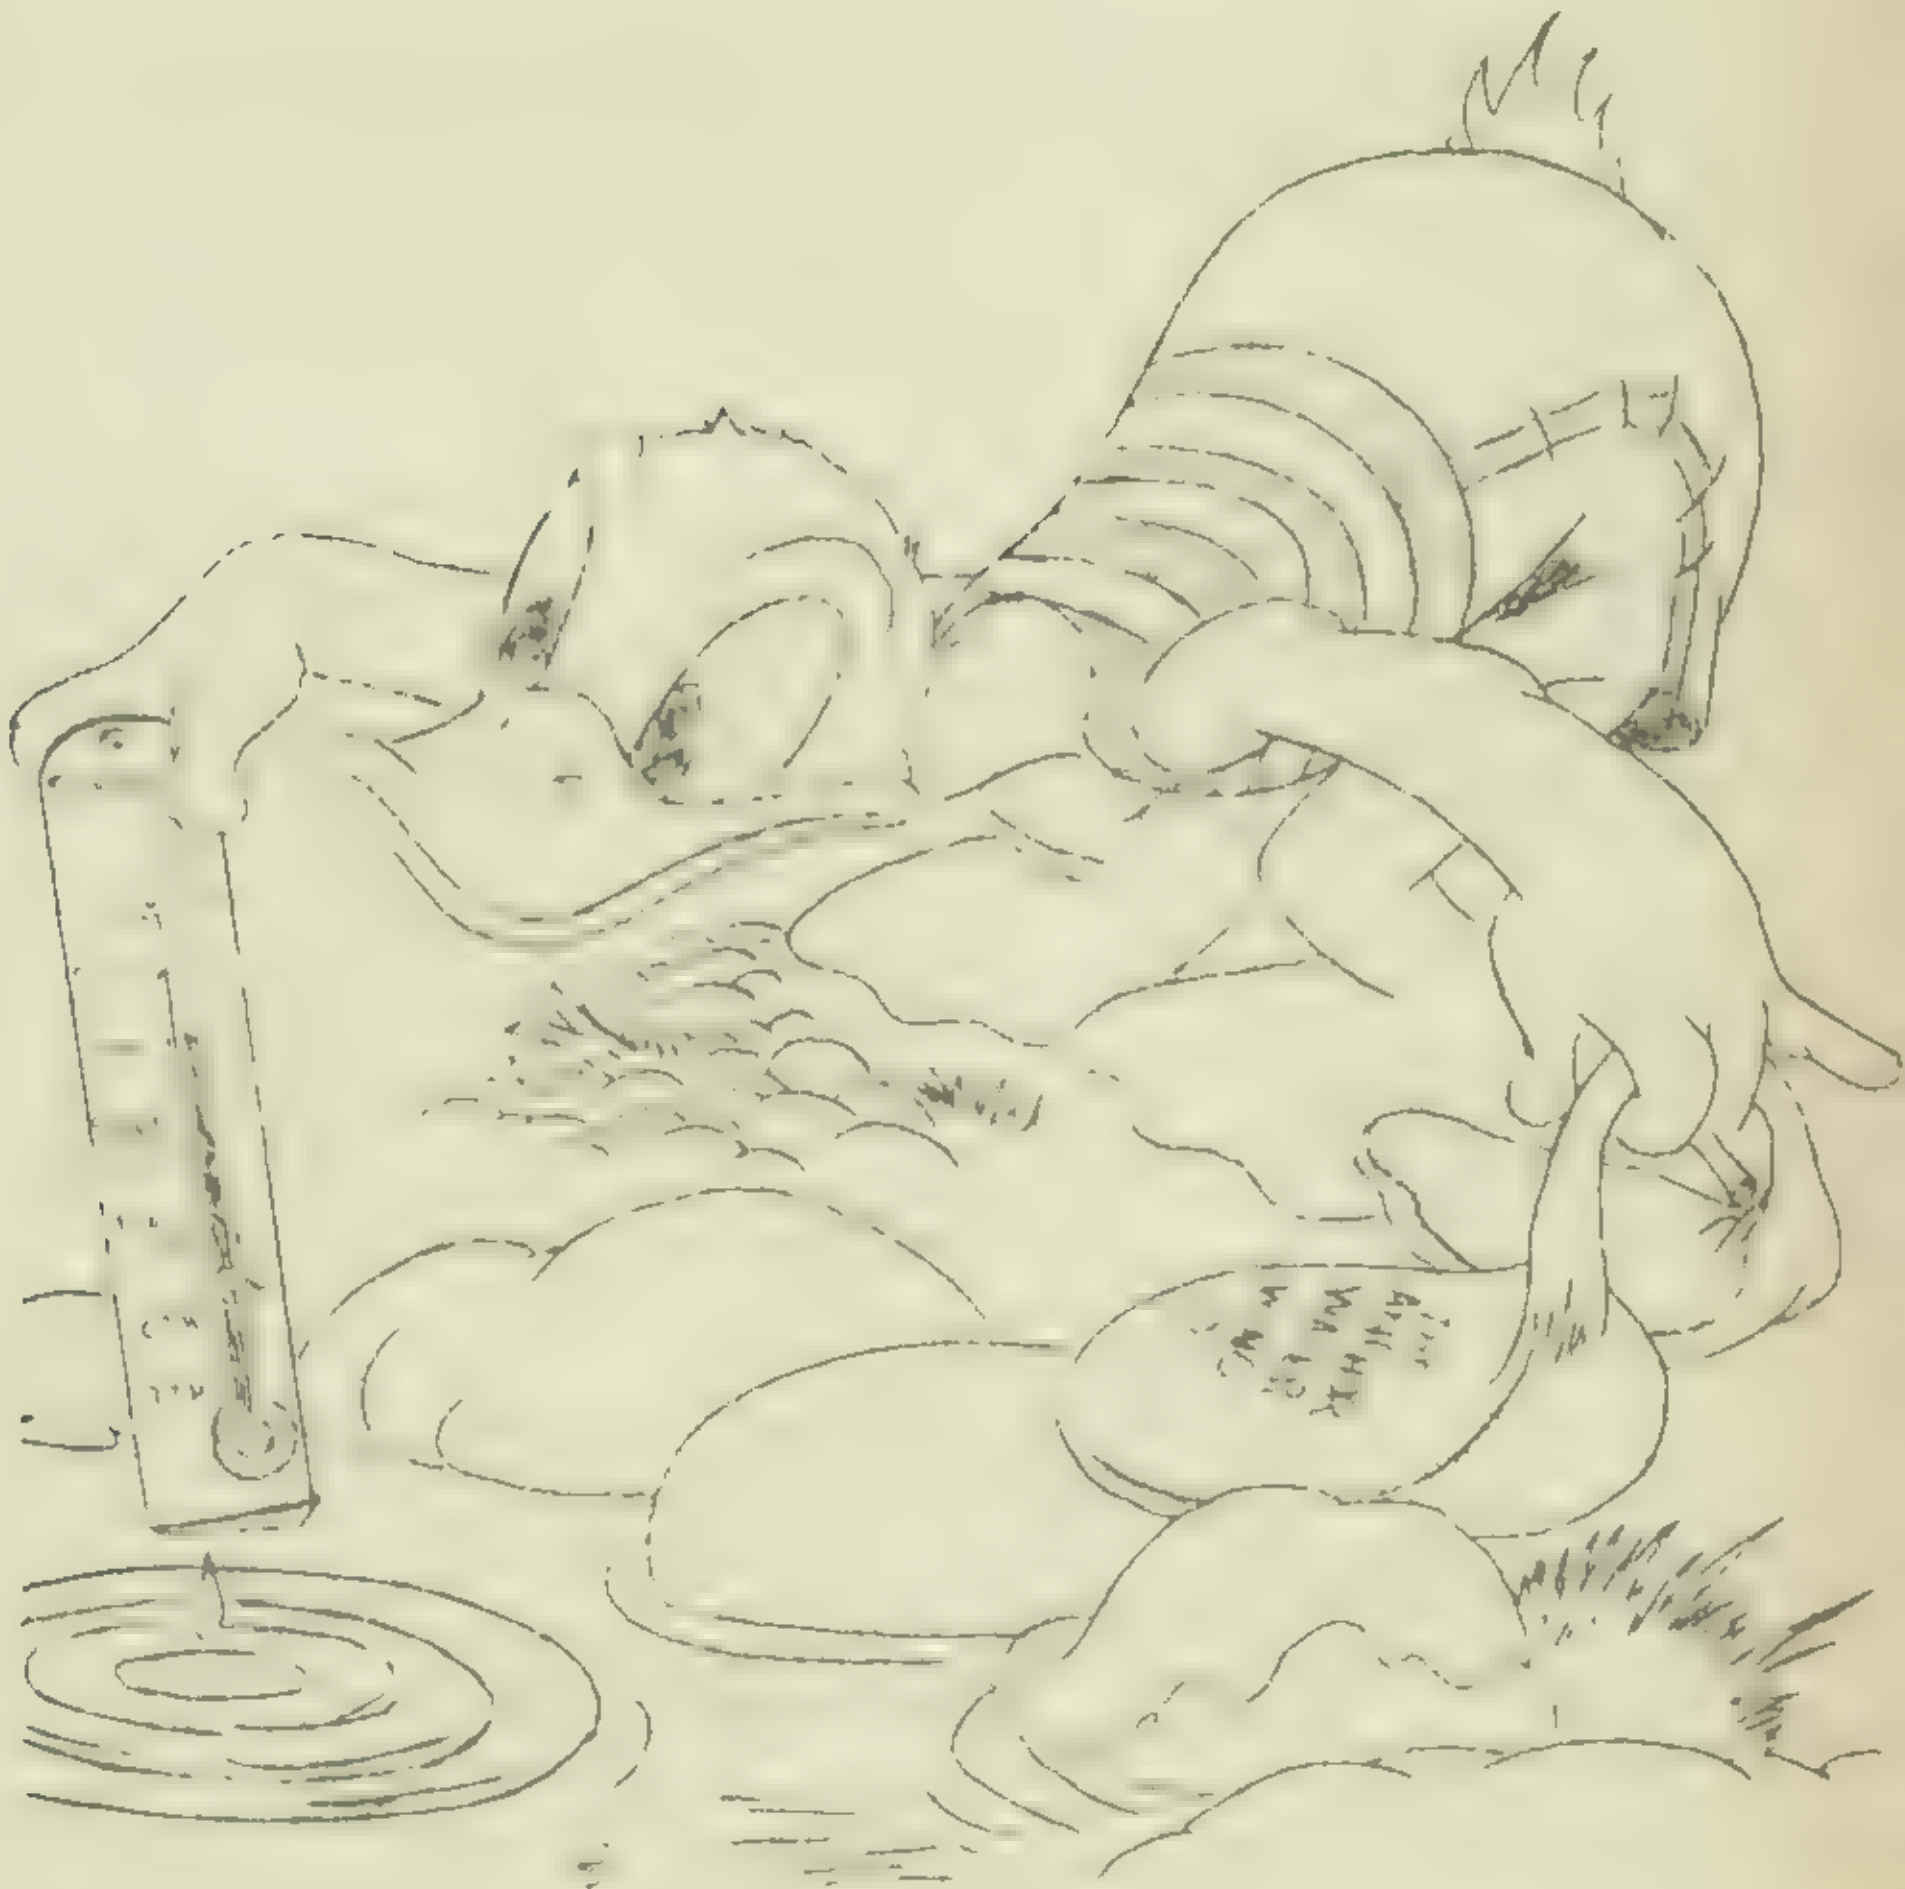

J is for Jane
The artist here
What will we do
After this year.

L is for Leona
Who say "oui oui"
She definitely takes
French, you see.

E is for Edith
Our lost sheep
She has a bright smile
And is quick to learn.

Put this all together
And you have a merry six
That shows you what Makes the seniors tick.

 Treasurer.....Ann Schmelzer
 Rep. to Student Council.....Jim Conley

The Juniors have taken part in several activities this year. We spent every spare night yelling "cokes," "hot dogs," and "pop" "corn" at the hangery crowd. Our Junior Rally was perhaps our most important activity. For the first time it was given two evenings instead of one and seemed to be a success. Our last important activity was the Junior-Senior Banquet held at the Hotel Harding on April 13. The decorations, food, and entertainment made it a lovely evening.

We closed our full year looking forward to that wonderful trip to "New York."

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Professor Pepp," a farcical comedy was presented by the Juniors October 25 and 26, under the direction of Miss Hocker. The Band and Orchestra furnished music.

The cast included:

Professor Pepp, a nervous wreck.....	Richard Granlee
C. E. Battenbaster, a giddy butterfly of 48.....	Paul Wiley
Howard Green, his son who had the court change his name.....	Edward Schertzer
Sim Eatty, the police force of the college town.....	Virgil Hite
Peddler Benson, working his way through school.....	Edward Faurot
Noisy Fleming, just out of high school.....	Vernon Neal
Pink Fletcher, an athletic sophomore.....	Howard Conley
Buster Brown, a visitor as junior.....	Jack Lill
Patty Gardner, the professor's ward.....	Norma Christensen
Aunt Minerva Boulder, his housekeeper from Skowhegan, Maine.....	Clara Mel Newland
Patricia Martins, the blind girl.....	Gene White
Olga Stopski, the new teacher of folk dancing.....	Martha Buckley
Kitty Clover, a collector of sawdust.....	Alice Roun
Vivian Drew, a college belle.....	Ann Smutzer
Irene Van Vilt, a social leader.....	Mary Radel
Caroline Kay, the happy little freshman.....	Dorothy Herbert

Act I: Professor Pepp's residence on the college campus. The opening day of school. A trip to Russia. Father comes to college. Dismissed as his son hoping to enter college.

Act II: Father is hazed. Surrounded by the nihilists. Bombs and buriski.

Act III: A garden party by moonlight. Celebrating the football victory. Bonfire and parade. Father the football hero. The grand finale. Aunt Minerva on the war path. A double wedding.

Loud laughter and applause was evidence enough of the audience's approval.

SOPHOMORES

 Treasurer.....Harold Miley
 Student Council Rep.....Dick Baer

The Sophomores started the year with 19 members, lost one and gained one, retaining our original number. Our new class mate, Lola Murphy, is not in the class picture.

The Sophomores have taken part in a few activities this year. We sponsored a minstrel, "Top Hat," which was presented by the New Bloomington Music Department and made a few dollars for our hungry treasury. We have several on the basketball team; Freddie McCumber, Bill Darnell, Roger Augenstien, and Gene Radel on the reserve team. Gene Radel also was a substitute on the Varsity team, and Wilbur Messenger and Lloyd Miner are managers. Dorothy Jean Herbert is one of the cheerleaders and she had a part in the Junior Play.

FRESHMEN

Row 1: J. Weston, J. Hobson, C. Nugent, D. Scott, D. Granlee, B. Hinamon.
 Row 2: Mrs. Harrington, J. Coulson, G. Gibb, B. Weiner, M. Axline, D. Shepherd, V. Buckley.
 Row 3: D. Brady, B. Cook, D. Harriman, R. White, B. Sloat, M. Greene.

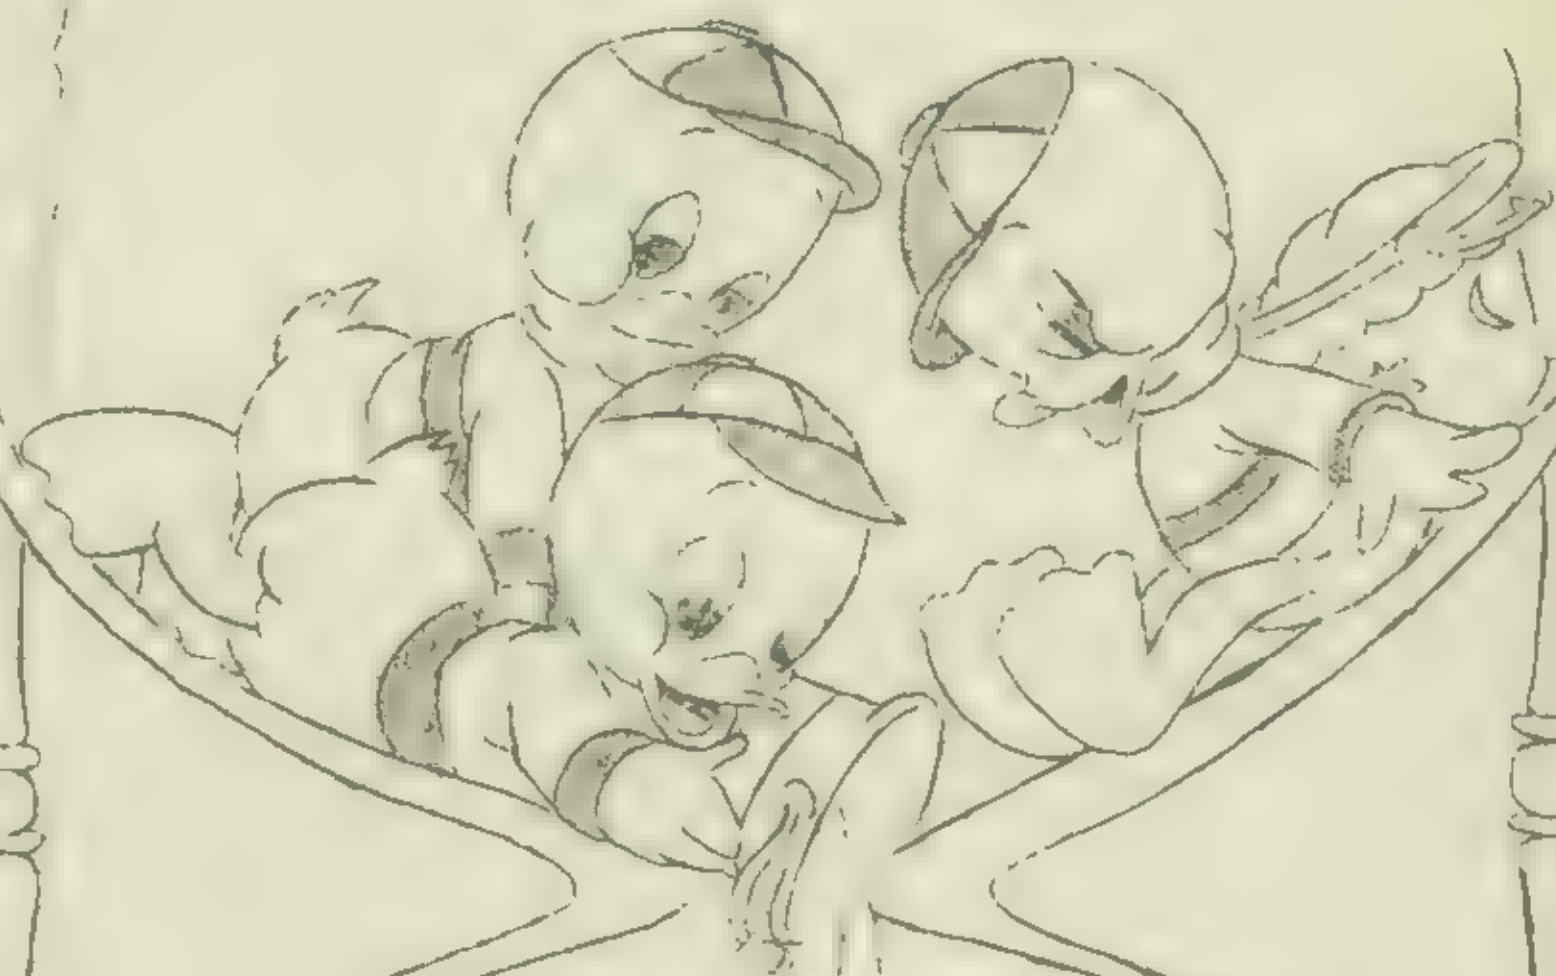

FRESH EN ACTIVITIES

President.....	Dick Granlee
Vice President...	Jim Weston
Secretary	Robert Hinamon
Treasurer	Mildred Greene
Student Council Rep.	Gerry Gibb

We started the year with the freshman initiation. Our dress for the day varied from nightgowns to overcoats and we had to carry anything from doll babies to buckets of water. We ended the day with an assembly performing by dancing with brooms, eating chocolate pie blindfolded, and making impromptu speeches, etc. The upperclassmen gave a party for us in the evening that partly made up for it.

The freshmen are active in the Glee Clubs, Orchestra, band etc. We are proud of our two boys on the Reserve Squad, Dick Granlee and Jim Weston and our two managers, Ronald White and Bob Sloat.

The seventh and eighth grades began the year with twenty four girls in the room. Although there has been a slight decrease in the number of girls in the room at present it is still over twenty. It is a pleasure to have the girls in the room in the eighth.

Our room has participated in several activities this year. We have had a Christmas exchange in our room. We have had a very program at Halloween. We have had a football game and we have had a game with other schools. We have had a game with the two sets of twins. Our girl, Marjori Hensel, is in the girls' basketball team. She is in the high school. Our girl, Jane Weston, is in the boy's basketball team. We have had a game with our students in band and Orchestra.

The seventh and eighth grades have played a few basketball games among themselves dividing into 2 teams. Sometimes they play with the fifth and sixth grades. Their scores were:

Red 12	Black 9
Red 11	Black 8
Red 14	Black 9

The seventh and eighth grades have played some basketball games with other teams. Their scores were as follows:

Morril 24	Locker 9
Morril 29	Green Cup 10
Morril 18	Grand Prairie 10
Morril 28	Grand Prairie 15

The seventh and eighth grades have played some baseball games also. The scores were:

Morril 24	New Bloomington 13
Morril 16	Grand Prairie 15
Morril 5	Grand Prairie 8

GRADES 5 & 6

Last September the pupils of Grades 5 and 6 set out upon their nine-months journey of 1945 and 1946 through the books designated to their grades. Our hopes were high and our aims were to accomplish the tasks before us and to gain all the knowledge we could.

The process of doing this was by units of textbooks and projects of special work. New history books were introduced in each grade. We learned the beginning of our country and about a full grown nation. The sixth grade worked diligently to learn decimals, per cents, indefinite numbers, areas, and volumes. The fifth grade enjoyed fractions, a bit of decimal, and measurements.

We used travel letters in grade five with our study of South America and United States possessions.

The room made study of the U.S. flag, the Ohio Flag and the United Nations' Flag. Booklets were made by each pupil.

The Coca Cola Company furnished projects on steel, glass, cotton, and motion pictures for a study unit.

We enjoyed our Audubon Bird Club. We studied birds and their nests, had routines in charge of the officers, programs in charge of committees, fed the birds around our homes, made houses and feeders, and left a bird picture to the room from our dues.

We gave an assembly program, helped in the Christmas operetta, gave our flag unit at the Farmers' Institute, and helped in the spring operetta. We enjoyed learning two and three-part songs.

All in all, we enjoyed our school term though we did have to work as well as play.

GRADES 3 & 4: ROW 1: Arnold, Radel, Mayland, Southard, Rutter, D. Coulson, H. Bosley, R. Coulson, Knickel, Miner, Mrs. Rutter, Fiper.

GRADES 3 & 4

School opened on September 4 with thirty-two boys and girls in the third and fourth grades. This was a larger number than we have had for several years and we had to have some new seats put in our room.

During the year we were sorry to lose Harry Lantz, Frank Burton, Loren Punter, and Ruth Tough from the third grade. We welcomed Emma Piper and Lyle Murphy.

The fourth grade lost Loren Burton, Beverly Parker, and Clair Fensel but gained John Craycraft.

Early in the year we made a visit to the railroad station. Some of us had never been in a railroad station and we found it very interesting. We wrote some stories about our visit.

We enjoyed two weeks vacation this year at Christmas time. Our vacation was due to the influenza epidemic.

We have had several public programs during this school year.

Our first was in October when we sang a group of songs in some of the meetings at the Junior Class Play.

Our Christmas program "I Heard of the Christmas" had to be given after Christmas vacation. We were glad to have two of the character parts played by our room. They were Johnnie Parker and John Lorry. The rest of us sang the various choruses.

During January and February we sang on a group of songs which we sang at the Farmers' Institute.

Our last appearance was in the Spring Music Festival where we participated in the operetta "Peter Rabbit."

Six members of the Grade Orchestra are from our room and have taken part in several programs.

Since we were unable to have our Christmas party and gift exchange as we had planned we had a Valentine party. Barbara Bonta made us a pretty box for our valentines. Mrs. Rutter served refreshments.

This year, for the first time in several years we enjoyed having Good Friday as a holiday.

Since Easter came late in April the remaining days passed quickly. Soon we were starting on our summer vacation.

GRADES 1 & 2

The first Tuesday after Labor Day found 33 smiling boys and girls in the first and second grades.

During the year we lost two pupils. Pamela Schindler moved to Toledo and Warren Hensel to Green Camp.

We gained Richard Craycraft from Sciotoville, Jimmie Piper from Marion for the first grade, and Billie Piper entered the second grade.

We had an interesting reading program this year. The basic reading program throughout the country is the "Guidance in Reading" series. The first grade pupils read the following books: "Nip and Tuck," "Nip and Tuck at Play," "Bob and Judy," and "Good Times Together," and we read "Round About" and "Day in and Day Out" as supplementary readers.

In second grade we read the basic reader, "Friends About Us" and used the workbook. Also "Friends and Neighbors," "More Friends and Neighbors," "Friendly Village," and "Neighbors on the Hill."

Our specific aims for reading are to stimulate delight in reading for information and pleasure, and to develop ability in both oral and silent reading, to read with an independence and understanding, and to form desirable reading habits.

Our room was severely hit by the "Flu" germ during December and January. In spite of our "flu" vacation and high percentage of absences, we have worked hard and have completed our work.

Our room participated in the operetta, "The Legend of the Snowman" which we gave after Christmas. We were candy kids, imps, and tin soldiers.

Two children in our room played instruments in the grade orchestra. Gene Moore from the first grade played the clarinet and Rudy Heller from the second grade played the saxophone.

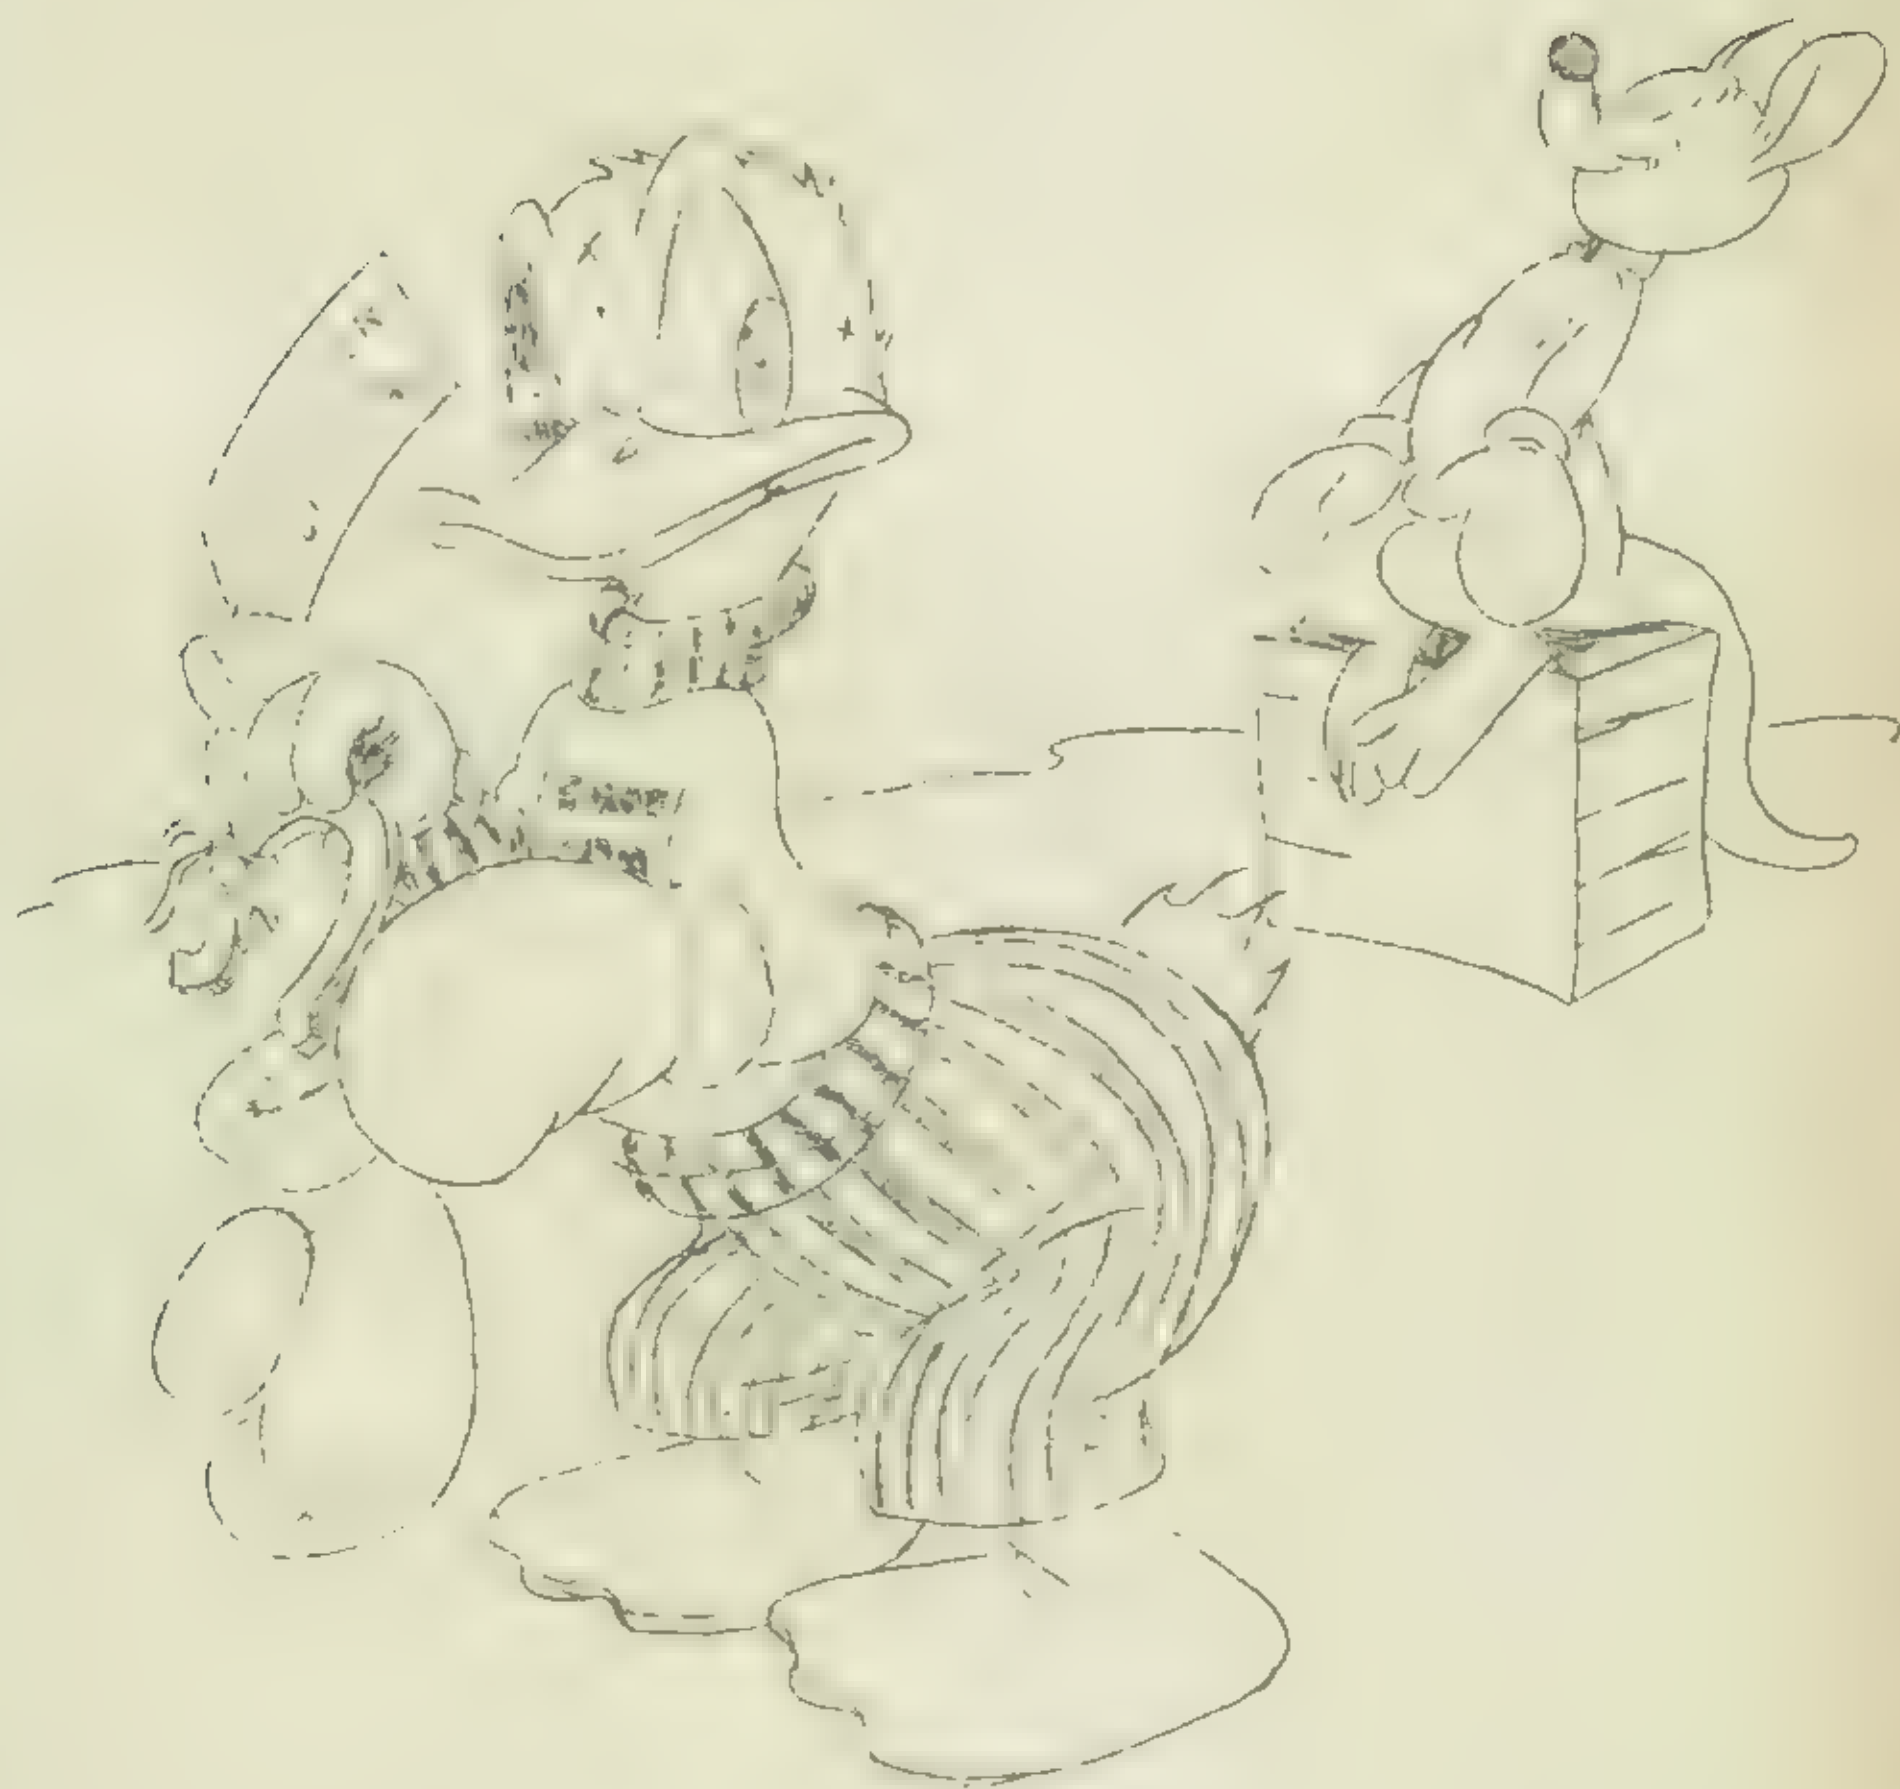

We contributed to the Farmers' Institute program in February. It was a group of songs, accompanied by Mrs. Hoover.

We had a Valentine box which Gene Moore and his mother made. It was crisscrossed with many messages from Dan Cupid. Refreshments of Valentine cookies and chocolate milk were served.

The last events of school activities in which our room took part was the school music festival. At that time we helped present the operetta "Peter Rabbit."

SPORTS

SOFTBALL TEAMS

This year for the first time in the short history of L. H. S. the boys and girls enrolled in the great field of softball (and we do mean enrolled.) The boys participated in the county softball league and the girls challenged the neighboring schools who, we now have reason to believe, were specialists in this great sport. Although both squads were unable to chalk up a single victory throughout the entire season, we might say they gathered a "draw" victory from each game.

Some of the outstanding features that will long be remembered by our never-tiring fans include:

The boys all fighting over who was to catch a fly.
Don Saxgon's (Superman) home run.
Dale Fensel trying his best to hit the ball left-handed.
Bill Darnell charging down the base-----man!
Ray Cook's frantic scribbles as scorekeeper.
"Sure-shot" Jack Lill, our shortstop, miffing an easy grounder.
Jim Conley, trying to decide whether to play first or second.
Howard Conley, our center fielder, trying to play with the sun in his eyes.
Mary Radcl with that sure-hold on the ball.
Dorothy Herbert, shouting remarks at "Ginny" on first.
Norma Christensen, our star catcher without a mask.
Doris Newland pitching practically a no-hit game.
Garry Gibb, our second Joe DiMaggio, getting angry at the team for not playing like pros.
Ginny Pace, blowing up on first base.
Mr. Harrington's flawless umpiring.
Mr. McFarland trying to shout loud enough to make the fielders hear him.
And everyone still trying to win a game.

First Row: Dan Sexton, Joe Conley, Dale Hensel, Mr. McFarlan, Lowell Hensel, Howard Conley, Pete Merritt.

SQUAD REVIEW

The Merral players have improved much this year in many ways. With the exception of Dale, who is a senior, all of our boys have promising years ahead. If they keep on improving as they have this year Merral should have an outstanding team next year.

VARSITY

Dale Hensel: The only senior on the squad, a forward on the varsity standing 5' 10". Dale was second high-scoring man with 89 points. Dale is very good at faking the man and going around the man to a sucker shot.

Lowell Hensel: A junior and an all around player who saw most of his action as center. He is 5' 10" and has scored 61 points on mostly one handed shots. Lowell has another promising year on the varsity.

Dale Herritt: A junior and a fighting 5' 11" forward who had plenty of action on the varsity. He was high scoring man with 37 points. He fakes very well and makes many shots from the foul circle.

Jim Conley: A junior who saw much action as guard on the varsity. He is 5' 11" and probably the best dribbler on the squad. He contributed 25 points to the seasons total.

Howard Conley: A junior who is our outstanding guard and team shooter on the varsity. He is 5' 9" and has made a good percentage of his shots. He has made 24 points for the season.

Don Sexton: A junior and in his second year of basketball he has improved greatly. A 5' 9" guard who is a good rebounder. He has another promising year ahead on the varsity.

Fred Fair: A junior who plays a very good game at guard. He is 5' 10" and a good rebounder. He is good at his one handed shots. He has a total of 5 points to his credit.

Pill Darnell: A sophomore who plays a very good game at guard. He is 5' 10" and a good rebounder. He is good at one handed shots. He stacked up 12 points in the season. He plays center and has a promising year ahead.

Edward Schertzer: A junior who is 5' 10" and good on the one hand shot. He plays a forward position.

Gene Ridel: A sophomore who plays a good game at forward. He is very good on the fast break and scored most of his points this way. He is 5' 9" and scored 19 points to his credit total.

RESERVES

Jim Weston: A 5' 11" freshman who is a very active forward on the reserve squad. He scored 59 points to his total. He is very good on the left hand shot.

Vernon Niel: A 5' 9" junior who is an active forward on the reserve. He scored 63 points to a good total. He is very good on the fast breaks.

Jack Lill: A 5' 8" junior who is an active guard. He has scored 15 points. He shoots mostly long shot.

Ralph Augustin: An outstanding sophomore forward. He was high scorer having 72 points to his credit. He hit many left hand hook shots.

Edward F. Arct: A 6' junior who plays any position, but mostly center. He has a score of 15 points. He is good on the foul circle shot.

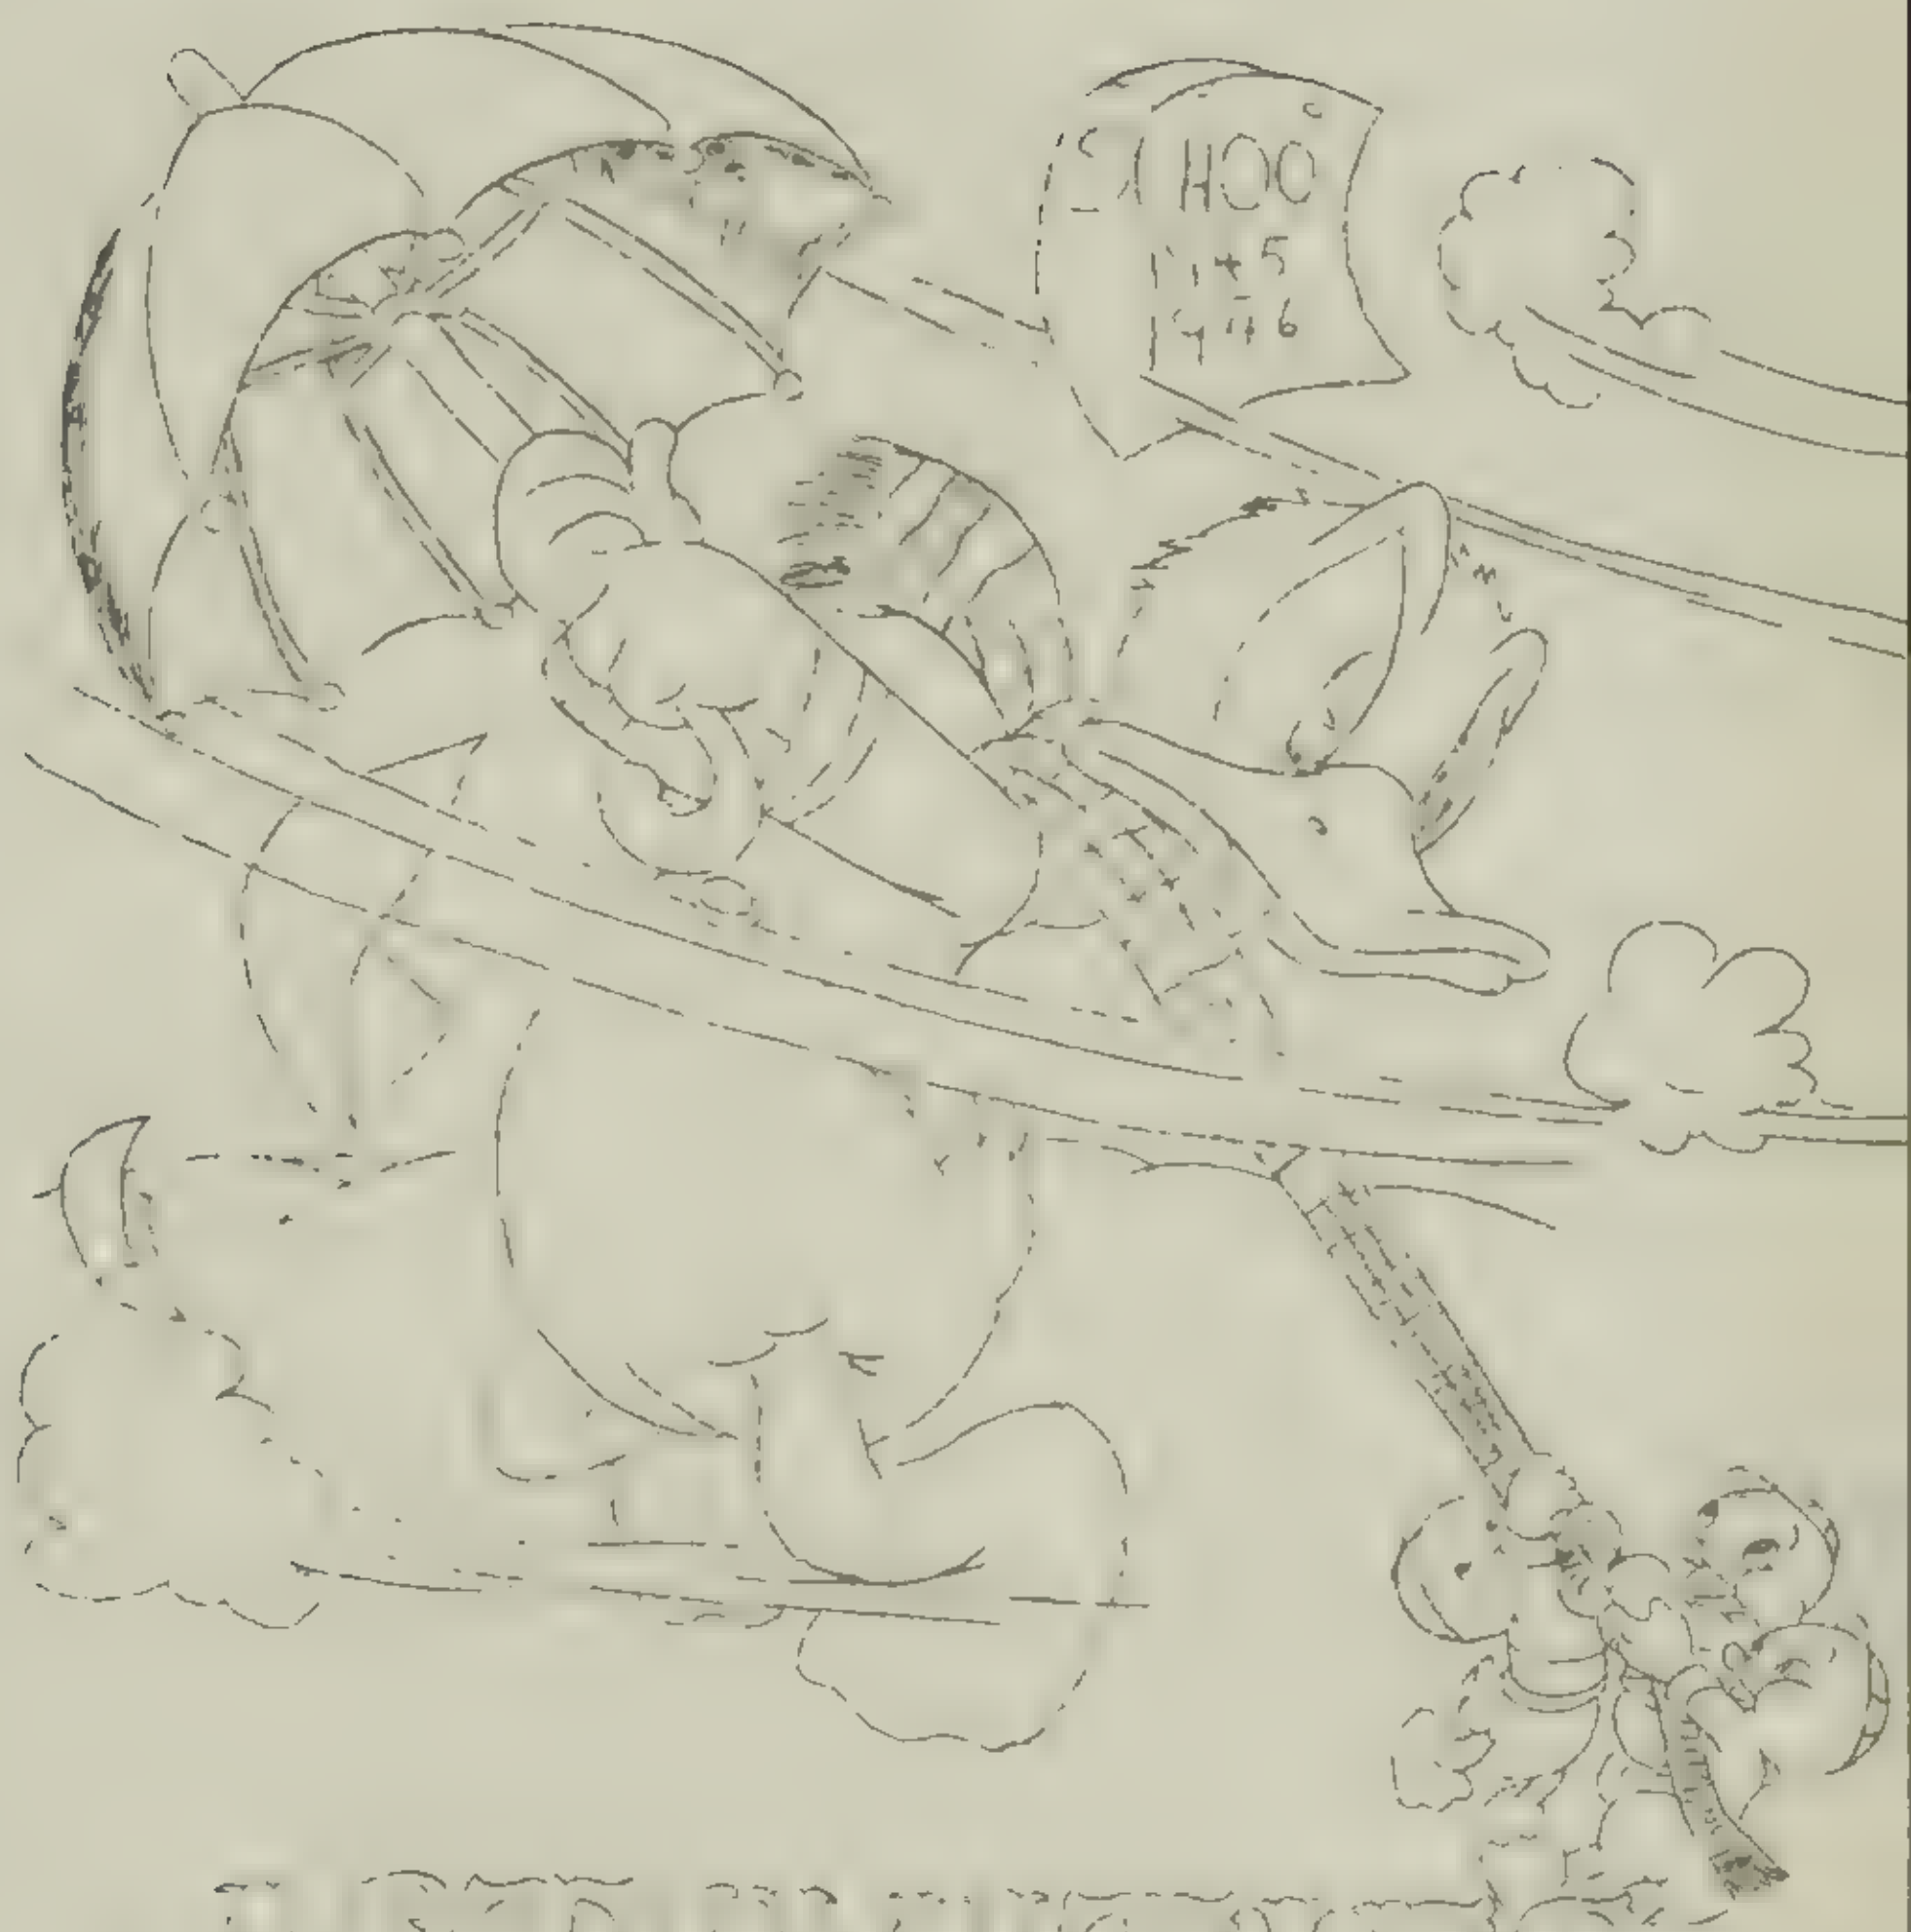

Paul Willy: A 5' 10" junior who plays a guard position. He is good on the fake and has 1 point to his credit.

Freddie McCann: A 5' 11" sophomore who turned out to be an outstanding forward. He had a final total of 29 points.

Harold Willy: A 6' sophomore who plays a forward position. He has 5 years of basketball ahead of him.

Dickie Granlee: A 6' freshman who plays a guard position. He has 3 promising years ahead of him to improve and to go ahead for Merril.

Dick Baer: A 5' 9" sophomore who plays a fast game at guard. He is a good faker. He has 4 points to his credit.

GRADE ORCHESTRA

The Grade Orchestra is made up of sixteen members. This is a new music organization this year. Our purpose is to prepare these children for a better high school orchestra. We also give us an opportunity of practical training. We have learned several songs and have performed at the Junior Play and the Junior's Institute.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Pres
Vice Pres
Secretary

Gene White

The Student Council is an organization of three representatives from each year, seventh, eighth and ninth grades. Our purpose is to promote the interests of the student, and plan to better and improve our school system. We sponsor several activities including the Grange Union, the Midway, the Ball Game, and the Valentine Dance. We also have a plan to help the poor children in our community, and to help the poor in different classes.

We wish to thank Mr. J. H. P. and Mr. H. H. P. for their cooperation in making the dance which we used for our fund raising. We want to thank Mr. H. H. P. for his help in making our year successful.

VALENTINE DANCE

The Valentine Dance was held at the Central School. The Valentine Dance was very successful. The girls were very happy and the boys were very happy.

The dance was started by Mary and Richard. The dance was very successful. The girls were very happy and the boys were very happy. The dance was very successful. The girls were very happy and the boys were very happy.

Carry Gibb and Mary Gibb served on the refreshment committee. They served ice cream, chocolate cake, and assorted nuts and candies.

BOY'S AND GIRL'S GLEE CLUBS

The Girl's Glee Club is made up of twenty seven members and the Boy's Glee Club has eighteen members. Both groups contain members from the high school who wish to join and a few from the seventh and eighth grades who are chosen by Mrs. Hoover. Both clubs have been very busy this year. The Girl's Glee Club presented a short operetta, "The Dainty Gypsy" at the Community Institute. Most of the girls in this operetta were models with a few speaking parts.

At the Spring Festival we offered a religious Easter Play "The Little Disciple". Many of our programs have been light, but this one was an uplifting, entertaining religious presentation, which we enjoyed giving as a different type of program.

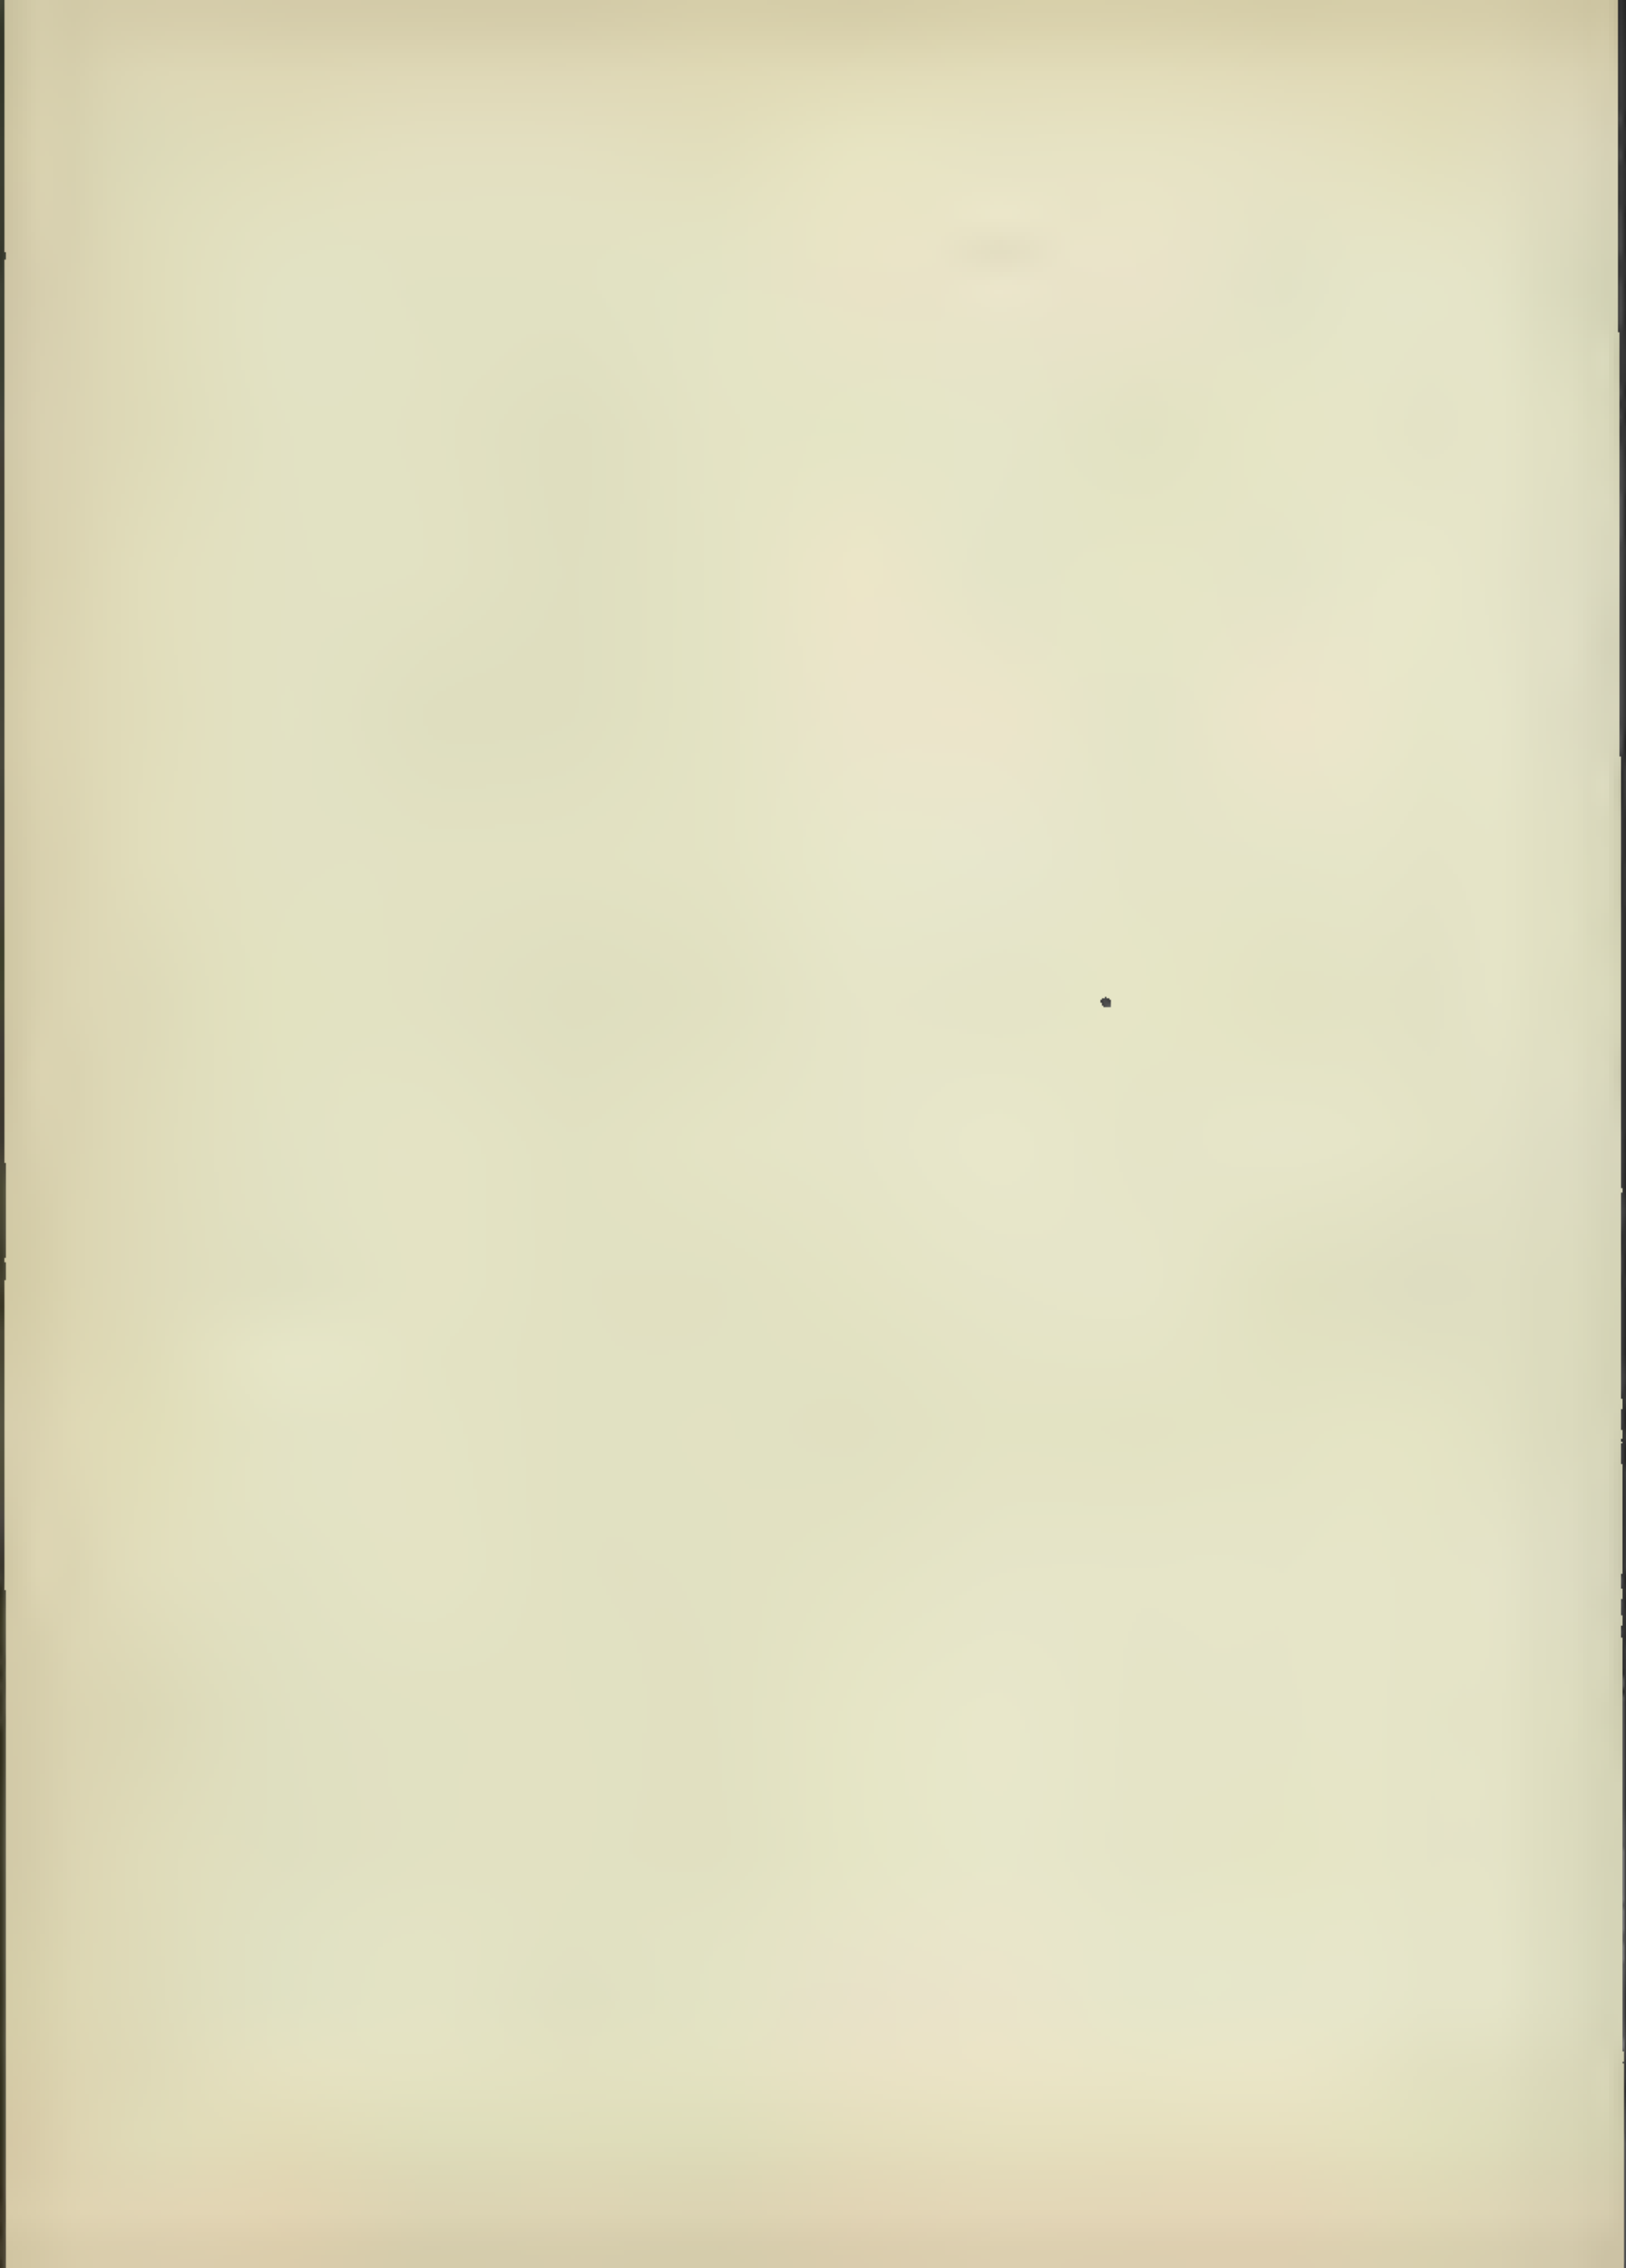

The boys enjoy their forty-five minutes every week and have learned many entertaining songs. Perhaps the most interesting thing of the year was our presenting a Minstrel at the Spring Festival. With a few "jokes", an interlocutor, and the part of the black and white chorus, we held the interest of the audience with our jokes (that left a few frowns!), our musicals, and our "colored" songs. We hope the festival was a real pleasure to all and to be enjoyed by everyone.

The Boy's and Girl's Glee Clubs have been in demand several times. This is due to the new songs by both boys and girls. We have appeared at the Christmas Program and the Spring Festival.

Mrs. Hoover has organized a new music group, the Girls' Glee Club, consisting of fifteen girls. This group has been very successful in its first year and has presented its program at the Community Institute, Christmas Program, and the Spring Festival.

Most of all is the Girl's Glee Club. These twelve girls have presented a very successful program and have learned to blend their voices very well. The girls in this group are: Mary Christensen, Mary Kell, Mary Kell, Mary Kell and Cheryl Nelson, soprano; Gerry Gitt, Mary Kell, Marie Corwin, and Hilary Green, mezzo-soprano; Dorothy Herbert, Jan Bishop, Marilyn Hughes, Nancy Rutter, altos.

They have presented collections at the Christmas Program, Spring Festival, County Music Festival, and at the Epworth Methodist Church.

SPRING FESTIVAL

Every year in the spring the Music department presents a program of varied music for our entertainment. This year the program was divided into three parts.

The first six grades presented a very colorful operetta, "Peter Rabbit" with many groups singing and performing drills etc, during the acts. As a direct contrast to this performance the Girl's Glee Club sang the religious work, "The Little Disciple". Ending the program was a short and very amusing minstrel presented by the Boy's Glee Club. We aren't sure who enjoyed this minstrel more, the audience or the boys who presented it. The program ended with much laughter and applause closing a very successful evening.

COMMUNITY PARTIES

A new and successful organization this year has been the Community Get-Togethers. The purpose of this organization is to bring about a better understanding between the parents and teachers and to encourage more friendly relationships in the entire community.

The president of this undertaking, Mr. Clyde Perry, has worked hard to make these parties profitable. These meetings are held the first Monday night of each month with the men and women alternating the task of planning the entertainment.

Each program is divided into the business session touching any problem or suggestion that may come up concerning the community's interest in the school, a short entertaining program, games or some form of recreation and the serving of refreshments.

THE HALLOWEEN PARTY

On November 2, a Halloween party was held in the school gym. As we first came to the party there were individual games around the gym for us to play while the rest of the group waited. After everyone had arrived we played a very interesting game called "treasure hunt". It was so hard that all of us couldn't have found the treasure. But it was a very delicious candy bar. We returned to the gym and danced for awhile and then topped off the evening with some very delicious refreshments.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

This year just at Christmas time our school was visited by that unwelcome visitor, the "flu bug". Since many of our characters were ill with the flu and school was closed the week before Christmas, our Christmas operetta, "The Legend of the Snowman" was given after Christmas vacation on January 3. The operetta was a success in spite of the difficulties in presenting it. The main characters were: John, a very selfish boy, Johnny Forry, Mary, his unselfish sister, Jeannie Parker, a poor news boy, Gail Buckley and the snow man, Don Loudenslager. The other students from the first six grades made up the other "group" characters.

Music between acts was presented by the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, the group of twelve girls, and the mixed ensemble.

THE CARNIVAL

The pupils of the music department under the direction of Mrs. Hoover conducted a carnival November 14 to raise money to help in buying band uniforms.

Committees were appointed to take charge of different concessions such as the ring toss, weight throwing, a fish pond, fortune telling, etc. Also a queen was chosen for the Carnival. Anyone was entitled to vote for his favorite contestant. Those competing were Jacqueline Harris, Dorothea Jean Fetter, June Fox, Lois Saxton, Dorothy Herbert, and Norma Christiansen. At ten o'clock Dorothea Jean Fetter was the lucky one to be crowned as queen.

A cafeteria lunch was served by the parents of the band members which started at six o'clock and lasted until all concessions were closed. A few cakes, pies and other dishes were left which were auctioned off to the highest bidder by Mr. Harrington.

The crowd of people that came and went during the evening seemed to enjoy the food, the concessions and the evening also netted a tidy sum of money for the music treasury toward the buying of band uniforms.

The Future Farmers of America has a total of twenty five in membership. One must have at least one year of vocational agriculture to become a member. The first outstanding event of the year was the initiation of the "Green Hands" on October 9. Later we participated in parliamentary procedure at the Farmer's Institute. Practice in order to receive a good grade in the contest was held at Ashley. Other activities were a study of livestock, and work on individual projects and project records.

(Ray) "I often wonder why parents take so much trouble to teach children to talk."

(Bob) "Me, too. Especially when they spend the rest of their lives trying to keep them quiet."

"A girl's good looks are often spoiled when he sneers."
Especially when he sneers at a bigger man.

(Miss Ellington) "Lena, your composition is the worst in the class. I'm going to send your father a note telling him about it."

(Lena) "You'll just make him sore. You see he wrote it."

The tragedy of the film is that he knows for certain that all his children will go to the dogs.

"Jimmie," said Father, "I wish you would learn to talk better manners. You're a regular little pig at your meals. You know what a pig is, don't you?"

"Yes," replied Jimmie, "a pig is Mother's little toy."

(Miss Hooker) "Did your father help you write this, Tom?"
(Don S.) "No, I got it wrong all by myself."

Jim: "Say, whatever became of those old-fashioned girls who fainted when a boy kissed them?"

Gene: "Yeah! whatever became of the old-fashioned boys who made them faint?"

Stiller to a lovely young thing: "Pardon me, but I'm writing the telephone directory. May I have your number?"

Little Boy: "I want two cents' worth of bird seed, please."

Dealer: "How many birds have you sonny?"

Little Boy: "I haven't any. I want to grow some."
